Collected Information and Electronic Communications. When you send an e-mail communication, post a comment on this website, attend a workshop, attend a virtual or in-person event, request Reiki services, or request a tarot reading from Virga, you're also sending personally-identifiable contact information, such as your name, e-mail address, date of birth, credit card information, etc. Please note that as a tarot professional, Hannah may log, record, track, or save the information you provide through the course of professional record-keeping or other personal, non-commercial use. Your information is never sold to third parties. Hannah reserves the right to use the information collected from you through your use of this website for any non-commercial, academic, educational, or other not-for-profit uses. Virga may from time to time use the information you have provided to contact you about news or updates that Hannah thinks you may be interested in. Video Reading Recordings. Virga may, at your option, provide video conference Reiki sessions or tarot readings through third party platforms or hosts, such as Zoom or Google Meet. These video sessions may from time to time be recorded. If a video session is recorded, you will be put on notice in advance of the recording. You are entitled to a copy of the video recording, though charges may apply. Before consenting to a video session, please go over any questions or concerns you may have with Hannah. By commencing a video session, you are consenting to the terms herein. Also, use of the third party platform triggers that third party's Privacy Policy as well, and you are expected to be familiar with its Privacy Policy and consent thereto. Please be advised that you are not permitted to record video sessions without express, written permission from Hannah. If you would like to record your video session, you must ask and receive permission before doing so.

Confidentiality of Information Submitted Electronically. While Virga exercises reasonable efforts to maintain your confidentiality, electronic communications over the Internet are not always secure. Virga has no control over what third parties might do with electronically transmitted personal information. Please be mindful of that when using this website; any third-party website used for classes, workshops, or events; or e-mailing Virga. It is not Hannah's responsibility to guarantee or warrant the security or confidentiality of any information you transmit electronically. Any information you have shared with Virga through your use of this website can be shared with organizations, individuals, affiliates, or others that Hannah genuinely believes is reasonably necessary to: (1) prevent imminent harm or risk of harm to yourself or to another, (2) meet any applicable law, regulation, legal process, or governmental request, or (3) investigate claims.
